TAX RATE HEARING

Mrs. Burrow presented the tax rate information. In doing so she explained to the Board to keep up our available tax ceiling we will have to access our general obligation bonds and debt service fund. In order to keep the debt service levy, we will need to prepay $435,000.00 of the Bond Series 2014. This prepayment will save the district $23,120.00 in interest and allow us to support a $4,500,000.00 bond issue for capital facility needs when needed. Mrs. Burrow stated that a representative from Larry J. Hart's office will address the Board during the meeting.

Mrs. Burrow explained the total assessed valuation from Miller and Cole County will be $70,598,225.00 and will generate $2,500,300.00 in local tax revenue. The district Total Tax Levy will be set at 3.63, with General Fund set at $ 3.03 and Debt Service at $ 0.59.

Comments to share many ideas with their colleagues.
- 8/21/19 Mrs. Brinkman presented a 2018 financial report on the Annual Eugene Tournament Basketball Tournament. Mrs. Brinkman stated 2018 was the first year we have Report charged schools to participate, $ 50 per varsity team. We allowed no passes, and charged adults $3.00 and students $2.00. The mandate of having 3 officials for varsity games has increased our expenses to more than our revenue. The 2018 tournament had a deficient of - $3161.42.
- Mrs. Brinkman suggested that we ask for sponsorships to help fund the tournament. Mrs. Brinkman presented several ideas that would generate funds to offset the cost of sponsoring the basketball tournament. She suggested a Tournament Sponsor, a Halftime Shootout Sponsor, a Hall of Fame Sponsor, All-Star Sponsor, Starting Five Sponsor.
- It was the consensus of the Board to allow Mrs. Brinkman to proceed with the idea of sponsorship opportunities for businesses to advertise and help support our Tournament.
- 8/21/19 Mrs. Burrow reported that our Annual Secretary of Board Report for 2018-
Mrs. Burrow 2019 shows our unrestricted fund balance to be at 23%, which has grown from Reports 12% the prior year. Mrs. Burrow stated that our enrollment is up, which will help with ADA and state funding, but will also increase our expenditures. The District has added an additional kindergarten class this year. The increase enrollment in sixth grade has brought the number of students to 59.
- Mrs. Burrow informed the Board that we will need to add an additional sixth grade.
- Mrs. Burrow also stated that the number of students with IEP's have almost doubled. The District employed on additional student aide and may need to hire one more.
- 8/21/19 Mrs. Smith inquired into the change in the school calendar for 2019-2020.
School Mrs. Burrow explained that the original calendar was adopted in February Calendar 2019. With the approval to change the grading periods from trimesters to four quarters the calendar had to be amended to arrange for approximately the same number of days to be in each grading period. The amended calendar changed one day. The Board wanted to make sure parents were advised of the change.

- 8/21/19
